

Ceme Repellent - 1440

Water Repellent for Plaster & Screed.

Description:-

Ceme Repellent - 1440 is a clear transparent liquid penetrating that provides a breathable type water barrier beneath and to the surface. Ceme Repellent - 1440 water repellent helps keep surface clean while preserving the natural appearance of the masonry and concrete precast.

Advantages:-

- Easily applied by brush, roller or spray.
- Ready to use from the can.
- The surfaces treated with Water Repellent can still breathe.
- No dilution required which ensure quality products are being used.
- Coating itself is colorless and the effect is an optical one due to decreased light diffraction

Uses:-

- As an effective's water repellent treatment on surface of brick, stucco, concrete, precast concrete and stone.
- To form an entrenched impregnable barrier against driving rain and damage from saturation.
- To form an impregnation barrier at the back of marble and granite against migration of stains during the hydration process.
- Can be safely applied to delicately tint rough cast surface without discoloration.
- Use for prevention of external penetrating in walls.

Packaging:

This Product is supplied in 30 L or 200 L Drums.

Storage:

Dry, Frost Free out of direct sunlight.

Shelf Life:

12 Months when storage in covered area

Material & Formulation:

All materials imported from Germany, China, and Dubai & formulated in Pakistan.

Ceme Repellent - 1440
Water Repellent for Plaster & Screed.